

1 Short characterization: The magazine OMNIBUSREVUE and the newspaper OMNIBUSREVUE aktuell (which used to be BUS AKTUELL) are the only combination publication of this industry to be issued alternately every two weeks with a very high circulation to subscribers.

OMNIBUSREVUE aktuell gives a short, regular and prompt overview of topics that are dealt with in depth and detail in the specialized magazine OMNIBUSREVUE. The magazine OMNIBUSREVUE reports in detail about all specialized topics relating to technology, tourism, and trading around buses and coaches. In addition, we offer an industry-related online portal for buses and coaches at www.omnibusrevue.de, as well as a weekly newsletter and an annual bus and coach compendium.

Bus guide 2009

The catalogue “Bus 2009 – manufacturer and dealer” offers an inimitable overview of the available bus-models on the German market.

The vehicles of over 27 manufacturers are listed there with their most important technical facts. The reader gets swift information and navigation about market segments and provider.

In advertisements and product portraits companies have the possibility to make an outstanding introduction of themselves and their top vehicles.

The branch-guide is supplemented by portraits of the most important second-hand bus dealers and suppliers-companies. Whoever is listed in this company and service register gets the readers’ attention, when it comes to finding qualified business partners.

The contents of the annual released catalogue will also be published and regularly updated at the internet presence of OMNIBUSREVUE. A search function is provided to specifically look for bus models and business partners.
