The Who is Who Gefahr/gut

Who is Who for Dangerous Goods 2006/07

Who is Who?

This year the Who's Who will for the first time present an overview of the international dangerous goods sector thus providing valuable impulses for upcoming purchasing decisions.

Companies have the option of presenting themselves to international readers in German and English.

The range of topics stretches from training and transportation to warehousing equipment and packaging.

New: International Circulation

Use this option

to present your company and your services with a company profile and/or an advert.

Who your advert reaches

All subscribers to Gefahr/gut and all of our international cooperative partners will receive a copy. In addition, the business directory will be laid out at all relevant trade fairs and events.

New: Online

All company profiles will also be presented in our newly designed business directory at www.gefahr-gut-online.de.

This ensures that your company profile is presented on an attractive sector platform throughout the year.
